MGR. MARTINGLLI'S ELEVATION TO

THE CARDINALATE. Arrival of Pope's Messenger and Be> stowal of the Zughetto-Future Official Ceremony.

Count Stanislaus Colacicchi of the Noble Guard of Pope Leo XIII, and messenger of the pope, arrived in Washington at 6:15 p.m. yesterday, bringing with him the consistorial letter formally advising Mgr. Martinelli of his elevation to the cardinalate in the Catholic Church, and also bringing with him the red zuchetto and the beretta. The zuchetto was presented to the proablegate at the papal legation last evening, and the beretta will be conferred with imposing ceremony at the Cathedral in Baltimore, May 8. Count Colacicchi arrived at New York from Rome yesterday morning and at 1 o'clock left Jersey City for Washington. The party that left New York included Dr. Rooker, Major Keiley, chevalier of St. Gregory, by Pius IX; Joseph Keiley, his son, the Rev. Dr. William J. White of Brooklyn, pastor of St. Patrick's Church, and Patrick Ferrelly of New York. The journey was made in the private car of the president of the Petrimore and Ohio. Journey was made in the private car of the president of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, John J. Cowen. At Philadelphia Father McCarthy, Father Fedigan, pro-vincial of the Augustinian order, and Father Cornelius Gillespie, S. J., pastor of the Church of Gesu, joined the party, and at Baltimore Bishop Keiley of Savannah boarded the train.

Witnesses to Ceremony. Arriving at the legation the papal messenger proceeded at once to fulfill his mission. The large parlor of the legation was brilliantly lighted and here Mgr Martinelli and others had assembled. The cardinal-elect was attired in the rich silken robes of an archibishop. He was attended by Mgr. Conaty, rector of the Catholic University, also in silken vestments, while in a circle before the group were ranged the company invited to witness the ceremony. Among the guests were: Dr. Francis Marchetti, temporary ablegate of the legation; the Very Rev. Father Boniface, O. F. M., of New York; Rev. Dr. Stafford of St. Patrick's Church; Fathers Pardow and Conway of St. Aloysius Church Father Fink of Gonzaga College, Rev. Father Whitney, S. J., president of Georgetown University; Rev. Father Semple of Georgia, Father Dougherty of St. Augus-tine's Church and Father Caughy of St. Steven's Church.

Official Announcement. The messenger from the pope handed his credentials to Mgr. Martinelli. He then produced the following letter, which, having been read by Mgr. Martinelli, was read aloud by Bishop Keiley:

"From the Secretary of State. "ROME, April 15, 1901. "To Monsignor Sebastian Martinelli: "In the secret consistory of this morning his holiness deigned to elevate to the sublime dignity of the cardinalate Monsignor Schastian Martinelli. This gracious and sovereign favor is brought to the notice of your eminence for your knowledge and guidance. M. CARDINAL RAMPOLLA." When the letter had been read Count Colacicchi opened the small red morocco case and took therefrom a red silker zuchetto or cardinal's skull cap. Dr. Conaty removed the purple cap from the head of Mgr. Martinelli, and the latter placed the red cap of high office in its stead. The Count's Address.

Addressing Mgr. Martinelli Count Cola-

ciechi said: "The sovereign pontiff Leo XIII, our ruler, has bestowed upon me the honorable duty of presenting to your eminence the letter of your nomination and the first insignia of your cardinalatial dignity. Your eminence will permit me to express how especially honored I feel at having been chosen by the good will of the pontiff to bear these joyful tidings and the satisfac-tion I experience in witnessing the virtue of the cloister rewarded and the vivifying influence of your eminence in behalf of your own order when corresponding to the rejuvenate ancient institutions that they might conform according to their end to modern demand.

"In the difficult times in which we live he has reunited into one whole the scattered forces of your glorious order. And this spirit, so judiciously modern, made your eminence especially fitted to represent the person and the mind of the pontiff among a people buoyant with life and energy which progresses evermore onward toward the splendid ideal of civilization. The healthy influence of this calm energy has surely added to the great gifts of the mind of your eminence and made you especially worthy of the high office to which the sovereign pontiff has called you to co-operate with him still more closely in his apostolic labors.

"I beg your eminence, therefore, to accept my respectful congratulations and my best wishes for a long and fruitful life in the service of the church and the papacy."
Mgr. Martinelli responded briefly, and the ceremony was at an end.

The cardinal-elect subscribed to the oath of his new dignity in his private chapel this morning. .

POLICY OF VETERANS' UNION.

It is Outlined by the Commander-in-

Gen. Green Clay Smith Regiment, No. 17, Inion Veterans' Union, celebrated the first anniversary of its organization at Maccabee Temple last night. C. H. Worven, senior vice commander of the Department of the Potomac, G. A. R., was introduced as presiding officer by Col. C. F. Nolske, who called the meeting to order. Vocal and instrumental music and recitations were given by Mrs. Marie T. Belding, Mrs. Hazard, Mrs. Eberly, William Cummings, George C. Noble, J. S. Vowles, George L. Hulse and Mr. Selee, respectively, and there were addresses by Gen. A. M. Legg, B. F. Bingham of the G. A. R. and Gen. R. G. Dyrenforth, commander-in-chief, U. V.

In the course of the latter's remarks he said that while entertaining only the kind-est sentiments toward ex-confederates, the Union Veterans' Union is opposed to the perpetuation of the ideas of the rebellion by the organization of societies by ex-con-federates for the purpose of fostering the memories of the lost cause. Continuing, he said the Union Veterans' Union was the lighting contingent of the veterans' organization formed to do battle with the politicians for all honorably discharged veterans of the war of the rebellion and the widows and orphans of departed com-

Continuing, he said: "We are organized into regiments and brigades, and propose to have companies or squads composed of our men, their sons and grandsons, their sons in law and nephews and their friends, in each election precinct, and, hereafter, not only in the matter of federal positions, but for state, county and municipal positions, the man who periled his life that the nation might live must be recognized.'

GARDEN PARTY.

Extensive Arrangements Being Made for Coming Event.

Extensive preparations are being made for the garden party which will be given Friday, May 10, from 4 to 8 o'clock p.m., on the grounds of the Naval Museum of Hygiene, the old naval observatory grounds, at 23d and E streets northwest, for the benefit of the Woman's Army and Navy League and the Soldiers, Sailors and Marines' Club of this city. Outdoor games and amusements of many kinds are being arranged for the occasion and refreshments will be served throughout the af-ternoon. Most of the prominent matrons and young ladies of the army and navy circle at the capital will be represented at the party and fair hands will direct each feature. In case the day set for the party should be stormy it has been arranged that

Jewett's "Labrador"

Refrigerator.

Now that the heat of summer has called your attention to Refrigerators, drop in and look at the "Labrador." Positively the coldest refrigerator and the most economical, being built on scientific principles, and gives the very best results—a maximum amount of refrigeration with a minimum expenditure of ice. The "Labrador" is far superior to any refrigerator on the market.

Its greatest features are:
The removable ice chamber; the entire inside exposed for cleaning when ice chamber and shelves are removed; the four sides of ice chamber exposed to air, answering the double purpose of throwing off cold and condensing moisture, rendering the air dry and very cold.

Patent cold blast—the system of circulation and rotation of air, forcing a constant stream of ice-cold air into the provision department.

Reception to Dr. J. E. Smith.

Grace M. E. Church was handsomely decorated Monday evening, with palms and flowers, the occasion being the reception to Dr. J. E. Smith, the new pastor. The recent appointment was his first to a Washington church. The committee hav-ing the reception in charge was composed of Miss Emma Brown, Mesdames Seward, Davis, Suter, Seifferly, Troy, Hefner, Hall, Hobbs, and Messrs. Galleher, Seward, Hobbs, Skippen, Green, Michaels, Brock, Farr, Sweet and others. James H. Galleher was master of ceremonies. The address of welcome was made by one of the stewards of the church. The reply by the pastor was heartily applauded by those present. Miss Mamie Seward presented the pastor's daughter with a beautiful bouquet of roses. The introduction of each person present to the pastor and daughter followed, after which there was sociable, at which refreshments were Reform in Manner of Conducting Funerals.

At the Monday meeting of the Ministers' Union held at Metropolitan A. M. E. Church resolutions looking toward reform in the conduct of funerals in the parishes represented by the union were adopted. Recommendations were made as follows: "The discontinuance of all Sunday funerals. We find this to be the custom in the great city of Philadelphia, to the sat isfaction of all classes. The regular duties of Sunday are more than equal to the time and strength of the city pastor.

"The discouragement of all forms of ex-travagance, especially in floral decorations, expensive caskets and the hiring of an unnecessary number of carriages.

"That funeral services in our churches be conducted exclusively by ministers of the gospel. "We respectfully urge upon our people the funerals, both at the home and the church."
